

At CaronSunshine, we are committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy governs our data collection, processing, and usage practices. It also describes your choices regarding using, accessing, and correcting your personal information. If you disagree with the data practices described in this Privacy Policy, you should not visit our website (caronsunshine.com) or access our resources.

Our Policy Covers:

1. The information collected from you through our website, how it is used, and with whom it may be shared.
2. How you can access and update your personally identifiable information.
3. The security procedures in place to protect against the misuse of your information.

TYPES OF INFORMATION WE COLLECT

OVERVIEW

There are two significant types of information we collect:

Site Use Information

In general, you can visit the site without telling us who you are or revealing any information about yourself. Our web servers collect the domain names, not the email addresses, of visitors. This data is general and can not be used to identify you personally.

Information You Provide To Us

When you visit our site, we may collect profile information (personally identifiable information) when you request specific CaronSunshine resources.

DETAILS

We use various technologies to collect and store information, including cookies, pixel tags, and local storage. The following are some specific pieces of information we collect:

Browsers and Devices

We collect information about the browsers and devices you use to access caronsunshine.com, which helps us provide features.

The information we collect includes browser type and settings, device type and settings, operating system, mobile network information, including phone number, the interaction of your browsers and devices with our services, IP address, and the date and time.

Your Activity

We collect information about your activity in our services, which we use to email you a resource you may like. The activity information collection includes interaction with our site content, like blog post views and forms submissions.

Your Location Information

We collect information about your location when you use our services. Your site can be determined with varying degrees of accuracy by IP address.

Other Sources

We may also collect information about you from trusted partners, including partners who provide us with information about our services' potential customers and security partners who provide us with information to protect against abuse.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

When you visit our website or fill out our forms, we collect and use information about you that will help us administer our business or provide services or other opportunities to you. Among other things, we use the information we learn about you to help us personalize and improve the experience you have on our website, respond to your requests, and communicate with you.

INFORMATION SHARING POLICY

We do not reveal personal data about you to unaffiliated third parties unless:

- You request or authorize it
- The information is provided to comply with the law, applicable regulations, court orders, or subpoenas, to enforce our Terms of Use or other agreements, or to protect our rights, property, or safety or the rights, property, or safety of our users or others
- The information is provided to our agents, outside vendors, or service providers to perform functions on our behalf (e.g., analyzing data, providing marketing assistance, customer service, etc.)

YOUR ACCESS TO AND CONTROL OVER INFORMATION

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at any time by contacting us via the email address or phone number given on our website:

- See what data we have about you, if any.
- Change/correct any data we have about you.
- Have us delete any data we have about you.
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data.
- Stop receiving marketing emails from us by clicking the unsubscribe link in an email message.

SECURITY

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information, that information is encrypted and securely transmitted to us. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the Web page's address.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept secure.
